SUSANS.
With ink bottle dry and paper all gone. With pencil used up, and postage stamps flown.
With shoes disappearing, and pants the same way.
I went on a strike for income of pay.
When the wise and good printer to avoid such a crash,
Came down with the envelopes, paper and cash,
The strike being over, I am now at my station,
To write up the news from this part of the nation.

Mr. C. Rosser Diggs, has just finished a gasoline launch for Walter C. White and son. She is said to be staunch and strong, supposed to carry about two hundred and fifty bushels of oysters; an eight horse power engine is now being put on, her first trip perhaps will be up East River after a raft of pound stakes. Boats with gasoline engines are getting to be as common as sailboats were a few years ago.

Mr. A. L. Armstead, had the good fortune to kill a fine wild turkey, which will be brought to his table on Thanksgiving day. It was captured in Brunswick Neck. Mr. Armstead while hunting in the same woods some years ago succeeded in bringing down a bird but on examination found it to be a buzzard but having been trained in the school of experience he has this time captured a genuine turkey. We congratulate him on his success.

The board of stewards for East Mathews circuit met at the parsonage on last Monday night to organize for the year. All of the churches were represented, and the preacher's salary was placed at the same as last year.

Leumas

NORTH
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fletcher of Portsmouth, have moved to Mathews to live, and have apartments at Mrs. Boswell Clement for a while. They expect to build in the future.

The members of the Emus church (colored) are adding a fine steeple, gallery and pulpit to their house of worship. It will be quite an improvement.

Ashby, the little son of our popular merchant, Mr. C. Brown continues very sick at this writing. Quite a number of the Ideal steam cookers have been sold in this neighborhood.

DIGGS.
The annual conference which was held in Portsmouth ended last Monday. Salem church being well represented there. Those who attended were Mr. Jno. P. Morgan, W. R. Stoakes, Jas. C. Brooks and Capt. J. C. Hudgins. While there Mr. Jno. P. Morgan visited his son and daughter Capt. W. T. Morgan and Mrs. Captain Willie Brownley and brother Capt. A. C. Morgan. All came home Tuesday, and reported an enjoyable trip, seeing and hearing their ex-pastors again.

Rev. Richmond Ferguson has been returned to Mateews circuit again.

Rev. J. E. Brooks, is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Jas. D. Brooks near Diggs.

We are glad to report, Alma Brooks is improving from typhoid fever.

Mr. E. R. Morgan, who has been suffering with carbuncles for the past month is improving under the treatment of Dr. White.

Mr. G. S. Forrest is quite sick again. Q.

HICKS WHARF.

Rev. T. P. Duke, pastor for the West Mathews Circuit arrived in the county this week, and will fill the three appointments, on the second Sunday in December. We regret to lose our former pastor Rev. C. H. Williams, but we feel our loss is the gain of the people to whom he is sent, and we wish him much success in his new field.

Rev. C. E. Hobday has returned to his home in King George county, after being the guest of his sister Mrs. McKendree Machen. He also preached at Providence Sunday morning last.

Mr. W. G. Miles is attending matters in Norfolk, this week.

Messrs Garland and Roland Miller, and Capt. Rossar Machen of Norfolk, spent Sunday last as the guest of Mr. Jessie Machen. Sunbeam

DANCING PROVES FATAL.
Many men and women catch colds at dances which terminate in pneumonia and consumption. After exposure, if Foley's Honey and Tar is taken it will break up a cold and no serious results need be feared. Refuse any but the genuine in a yellow package. For sale by E. Baker & Co., Druggist.

THE COFFIN PARADE.

We would blush for Williamsburg had the personnel of the crowd that insulted Dr. L. S. Foster Monday night been different. As it is we can say that the demonstration in no wise represented the sentiment of the lawabiding, respectable people of this town. It was the work of boys, who, we feel sure, will deeply regret their action when they come to think of it seriously.

It was a disgraceful thing from from beginning to end, not only an insult to Dr. Foster and his excellent family, but an affront to every citizen of this city. While a harmless prank, if it may be so dignified, it was scandalous, odious.

We would not dignify it with calling it a "riot," or a mob, but it certainly showed the cowardly spirit of the mob when it met a determined man with a pistol.

We knew that the people of the state have been told that a bloody riot was imminent. No such danger ever existed for a moment during the demonstration. What might have been is merely conjectural.

However, Williamsburg's good name has been dragged in the mire by this uncalculated demonstration against a high official, whose character is unquestioned and whose only fault seems to be that he has made enemies in places where it will in no wise hurt him.—Virginia Gazette.

A Railroad Man's Prayer.

An old railroad man was converted, so the story goes, and was asked to lead in prayer. This is the way he worded it: "O Lord now that I have flagged the devil lift up my feet from the rough road of sin, and plant them safely on the deck of the train of salvation. Let me use the safety lumps of prudence, make all the couplings in the train with the strong link of Thy Love, and let my latern be the Bible. And, Heavenly Father keep all switches closed that lead off on the siding, especially those with a blind end. O Lord, if it be Thy pleasure, have every semaphore block along the line show the white light of hope, that I may make the run of life without stopping. And, Lord give us the Ten Commandments to a schedule, that when I have finished the run on schedule time, pulled into the dark station of Death, may Thou, the Superintendent of the universe, say 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant, come and sign the pay-roll and receive your check for eternal happiness.'"

BLUE RIBBON GROCERY.

By Name, But Not in Spirit.

The sale of the Blue Ribbon Brand of Coffee is increasing and will continue to do so. As the user extracts from it the proper amount of good cheer, good feeling and fellowship, it is or is like the breath of Spring, its taste as tempting as a maidens lips, and its effect as soothing as a song of love, to indulge in a draught of Blue Ribbon Coffee makes you feel like one who has inhaled the smell of the Chinese, puts him in a fond and peaceful mood, and to be awakened to a stern realization of duty, become in possession of beautiful good money, I would recommend to all who wish to attain this pleasant feeling to call at the store and get a can of this Coffee.
